

Billiard Room Rules for Guests

- Eating and drinking are forbidden in the room!!!
- Parties are not allowed in the room!!!
- A deposit of 50€ is required to reserve the room.
- Loud noise and music are prohibited. The room must be used quietly after 10 PM. If neighbors complain about noise from the billiard room, the AG will ask guests to lower the volume. If noise issues persist, guests will be asked to leave the room immediately.
- If the AG finds that guests are holding a party, they may ask the guests to leave immediately, even before the reservation period reaches. A portion or the entirety of the deposit may be withheld based on the House's decision.
- The room is provided clean and organized. Guests have 30 minutes after receiving the key to report any issues, dirt, or damage. Failure to report will result in guests being held responsible for any issues discovered later.
- The carpet and sofa must be left clean. If food remnants or stains are found, the guest will be given time to clean them. If cleaning is unsatisfactory, the deposit may be withheld.
- Stains found on the billiard table fabric will result in the deposit being withheld, and additional charges may apply based on the decision of the House speakers.
- For any damage to the room or equipment, including billiard cues and tables, the cost of damages will be deducted from the deposit. Additional charges may apply.
- The trash bin must be emptied by the person who reserved the room!
- The balcony, part of the billiard room, must also be left clean. Do not leave trash or cigarette butts.
- All pool balls must be returned to their original order on the table and covered. All cues and chucks must be placed on the stand as found. No cue should be left around the room.
- Kicker balls and darts must be returned to their position.
- The moving of furniture is not allowed. Everything must be returned to its original place.
- Repeated violations of these rules, causing irreversible damage, or engaging in other critical situations, may result in a ban from reserving and using the room for a specified period.
- Guests must return the key to the designated person and wait for the room check. The deposit will be returned if everything is satisfactory, or further action will be communicated.
